SKETCHES OF LITTLE OLD NEW YORK BY O. O. McINTYRE

Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-125 Hotel Majestic, West Seventy-second Street.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Just what to do with a nude figure so that it will be tolerable from one standpoint and illuminating from another was a much discussed subject among New York artists this week. The issue developed from a situation in an art school in Philadelphia where on one wild day of the week a masculine model wearing a frown and a freckle appeared before a drawing class which included three young women. Their screams reached New York two hours before the telegram explaining all. As soon as the young women had recovered consciousness, their breath, their drawing paraphernalia and their equilibrium, they ran sideways to the art director and declared that if anything of that sort occurred again they would take up hemstitching and leave art flat on its chest.

Each told her version of the outrage while the others stood by and sniffed or moaned intermittently. The men in the class, consisting of many Bohemians from Washington Square, New York, declared that the instant clothes or drapery obscured their shivering models they would leave the class.

Some people, they howled, would like to put a pair of golf trousers on a sultan. In the meantime some one got a wireless to the press and within a few moments the reporters drew up in their limousines. The director general was sought.

"Why we don't use naked models here," he said. "We use nothing but nude models." Which, of course, made the complaint of the young women absolutely ridiculous.

work in every step. And by the way did you know the gentlemen were going backward in the fox trot this year?

It is reported that a certain building, occupied by one of the New York life insurance companies, has a niche in it that has for a long time awaited a statue. The statue is to be of the men who will admit to the examining doctor that he drinks "habitually" not "occasionally."

Another magazine has started up in the art centers of McDougall Alley, despite the cost of white paper. The new magazine is, of course, devoted to uplift and to the "free expression of ideals" whatever that may be.

DR. WALLACE SPEAKER AT CONFERENCE

Of Epworth Leaguers Which is Being Held in the City of Morgantown.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

MORGANTOWN, Nov. 2.—Dr. Wallace B. Fleming, president of West Virginia Wesleyan college, at Buckhannon, was the principal speaker at the opening session of the annual conference of the Epworth League, Methodist Episcopal church, which is in progress here. The Rev. J. E. Wells, of Kingwood, state president, is presiding. Delegates from all parts of the state and a few churches in Maryland and Virginia are present.

The convention this year will be different from those previously held by the organization. Heretofore, the meetings took the form of conferences of Epworth League workers, but President Wells has announced that this session will be conducted more in the nature of an institute, the purpose of which will be to develop and train workers for the leagues of the state.

Following a preliminary business session today at which committees were appointed, addresses were made by the Rev. Roy McCuskey, of Wheeling; Dr. Wilbur E. Sheridan, of Chicago, general secretary of the Epworth League; the Rev. S. S. Hart, of Monroeville; and Claude E. Tower, of Monongahela, Pa. Round table conferences were conducted by the Rev. J. H. Hess, and the Rev. S. C. Jones, both of Wheeling, and by Dr. Sheridan, who will also speak at the evening session.

Reports of various committees will be read Friday, followed by the election of officers and the selection of next year's convention city. The meeting will adjourn at noon.

The officers of the conference are president, the Rev. J. E. Wells, of Kingwood; first vice-president, the Rev. Roy McCuskey, of Wheeling; second vice president, the Rev. H. H. Ziegler, of Charleston; fourth vice president, the Rev. Blair W. Roberts, of Morgantown; junior league superintendent, Mrs. F. J. Beall, of Morgantown; acting secretary and treasurer, Foster Ziegler, of Kingwood.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latter application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sinuses of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphate "hot water" is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

ENTERPRISING AND IN THE FULL STRENGTH OF ITS MANHOOD—

Said one of our friends: "I prefer for my part a bank that has outgrown the swaddling clothes and has not yet reached the lean and shivered pantaloon; one that has come up healthily, steadily, diligently, conservatively yet industriously—a sane bank—a clean bank—a bank that is considerate, careful, enterprising and in the full strength of its manhood. That is the kind of a bank I like to do business with."
